DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims 56-58 drawn to an invention nonelected with traverse in Paper dated 25 April 2005. A complete reply to the final rejection must include cancellation of nonelected claims or other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144) See MPEP § 821.01.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 60 and 61 are objected to because of the following informalities: Claim 60 depends from "Claim 60" and claim 61 depends from "Claim 61". Appropriate correction is required.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 16 December 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive, because claims 27-55 are not dependent from claim 1 as asserted by the applicant.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 1734

5. Claims 27, 45, 46, 50, and 54 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Marty (US Patent No. 5,451,287).

Regarding claim 27, Marty discloses an apparatus for applying a strip material to a tubular marker (46). The apparatus includes a base with a mandrel including clamps for holding the marker in place and means for rotating the base with the mandrel and marker to place the strip onto the object. (See generally Figures 1, 6, and 7.)

Regarding claims 45 and 46, Marty includes a plurality of strip material applicator assemblies positioned to one side of the base.

Regarding claim 50, the object is circular with a uniform circumference.

Regarding claim 54, Marty discloses applying a reflective material.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claim 47 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Marty as applied to claims 27 and 45 above.

Marty discloses the plurality of strip applicators being on one side of the axis of the base, however, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made that an alternative to having them on one side of the base, there could be a strip applicator on each side, because this is a matter of design choice and within the purview of one of ordinary skill in the art.

Art Unit: 1734

8. Claims 27, 29-31, 33, 35, 50-53, and 54 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Keller et al. (US Patent No. 5,047,107).

Regarding claim 27, Keller discloses a method and apparatus for applying a reflective sheet to a traffic cone. The apparatus includes a base (30) with a mandrel (32) and clamps (34, 36). The apparatus also includes a strip applicator (14) which is movable for engaging the material onto the object. (See Figures 1 through 5.)

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made based on the teachings of Keller that a similar device could be used to apply material to a drum in the same manner, because one of ordinary skill in the art would appreciate the advantages of having a machine to perform such an operation, rather to do so by hand.

Regarding claims 29-31, Keller discloses a tapered mandrel.

Regarding claim 33, one of ordinary skill in the art would appreciate the advantage of having a mandrel which compliments the shape of the object to which the material is being applied, thus providing better control of its rotation.

Regarding claim 35, having the positioning of the clamps configured at about 90deg apart about a circumference is within the purview of one of ordinary skill in the art. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made for an artisan would appreciated the need to position the clamps at a point where they are most effective.

Regarding claims 50 through 53, it is appreciated that the drum can be tapered or have a uniform circumference.

Regarding claim 54, Keller discloses applying a reflective tape.

Art Unit: 1734

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 1-5, 7-25, and 59 are allowed.
10. Claims 32, 34, 36-44, 48, 49, and 55 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

11. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
